Sorrento, Sicily & Rome

$4,999.00

October 17-29, 2024

Sorrento ♦ Palermo ♦ Trapani ♦ Agrigento ♦ Catania area ♦ Rome

Thursday, October 17 • Depart

We depart Minneapolis today en route to Rome, Italy.

Friday, October 18 • Sorrento

Upon our arrival in Rome, we meet our Italian tour manager and board our private bus. Our drive southward stops first at Montecassio Abbey, the first house of the Benedictine Order and the location of a four-month battle between the Allies and Nazi Germany during World War II. We continue on to Sorrento and arrive for dinner at our hotel. D

Saturday, October 19 • Sorrento

After breakfast, we drive a short distance to the Pompeii, where we enjoy a guided tour of the ever-evolving archeological site. In the afternoon, we return to Sorrento and enjoy a tour of a lemon grove and learn about how limoncello is produced. The remainder of the day is free to explore Sorrento. B/D

Sunday, October 20 • Overnight Ferry

The majority of our day is spent along the scenic Amalfi Coast. While our driver navigates the coastal road, we are treated to scenic vistas of cliffside villages and the azure Tyrrhenian Sea. We visit the Museo della Carta, and enjoy a guided tour of the 13th century paper mill and learn about the art of paper making. Before boarding our overnight ferry to Palermo, we enjoy a traditional pizza dinner in Naples. B/D

Monday, October 21 • Palermo

After enjoying breakfast on the ferry, we disembark in Palermo. A local guide joins us this morning for a tour of Sicily's capital. Palermo is comprised of a rich blend of several cultures: Greek, Arab, Norman and Germanic, which we see the influence of during our tour. Our sightseeing includes the Norman Royal Palace, the seat of the Sicilian Parliament. Although most of the palace is closed to the public, we see the Palatine Chapel, the great example of the Norman's skill in blending cultures. We also tour the Church of San Giovanni with its five pink domes, one of Palermo's most colorful buildings. Afterwards, have some time to explore the fascinating maze of narrow lanes and tiny piazzas with their shops and markets, as well as visit the Catacombs of the Capuchins. B/D

Tuesday, October 22 • Palermo

This morning begins with an excursion to nearby Segesta, where we see one of the most impressive Greek temples in the world. Situated on a barren, wind-swept hillside overlooking the Bay of Castellamare, it is one of the most bewitching sites in the Mediterranean. We return to Palermo in the afternoon and tour the No Mafia Museum and Memorial. The museum documents the history and influence of the Mafia in Sicily, as well as Italy's fight against organized crime. The remainder of the day is free to explore Palermo on our own. B/D

Wednesday, October 23 • Trapani

We depart Palermo this morning and continue to Erice; a dramatic medieval village perched on a 2,500-foot hilltop. With its old Norman castles, fountains and cobble-stoned streets, it is one of the most unspoiled and charming villages in Sicily. After time to explore, we travel via cable car down to Trapani. Here we tour the Salt Museum and learn how this valuable mineral has been extracted from the coastal salt pans for centuries. B/D

Thursday, October 24 • Agrigento

Our first stop today is at Selinunte to see the overwhelming array of ruined Greek temples, destroyed by Hannibal in 409 BC. We have a relaxed lunch stop where we can also enjoy the magnificent seascape. In the afternoon, we tour the Casa Museo del Sapone and learn how to make soap. After our tour, we continue to our hotel in Agrigento. B/D

Friday, October 25 • Catania area

Today we take one of the most compelling visits that can be made to the Greek temples in Sicily; a visit to the Valley of the Temples at Agrigento, including the Temple of Juno, which dates back to the 5th century BC and stands majestically alone on a ledge overlooking the valley. There is plenty of time to see the temples before departing to Catania on the eastern coast of the island, our home for the next three nights. En route we will also stop at Piazza Armerina to see the famous hunting lodge containing 36,000 square feet of intricate mosaics. B/D

Saturday, October 26 • Catania area

After breakfast, we enjoy an excursion to Syracuse, a 2,700-year-old city on the southeastern coast of Sicily. A local guide introduces us to the Ancient Greek, Ancient Roman and Byzantine history of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. We enjoy free time after our tour to explore, including the Island of Ortigia, location of some of the oldest structures in Syracuse. We return to our hotel in the late afternoon. B/D

Sunday, October 27 • Catania area

Our first stop this morning is at Mt. Etna, at almost 11,000 feet, Europe's largest volcano. The routing and the type of visit possible will be determined by the volcano's level of activity. The area itself is lovely, replete with mile after mile of citrus groves as well as figs, almonds, grapes, olives, pistachio, and eucalyptus. Next, we return to the coast and visit the resort town of Taormina. Easily Sicily's most picturesque town, Taormina enjoys a spectacular location on a terrace of Mount Tauro, from which one can gaze out at the magnificent seascape, as well as at a fuming Mount Etna. Before returning to our hotel, we enjoy a wine tasting at one of the many regional wineries. B/D

Monday, October 28 • Rome

After breakfast, we transfer to the nearby Catania Airport for a short flight to Rome. Upon our midday arrival, we transfer to our hotel in the heart of Rome and have the remainder of the day at leisure in Rome. We celebrate our time together with a farewell dinner at Terme del Colosseo with traditional Roman dishes and classical entertainment. B/D

Tuesday October 29 • Return

We transfer this morning to the Rome Fiumicino International Airport for our return flights to Minneapolis/St. Paul, bringing home memories of ancient cities and spectacular landscapes. B

DEVIATION REQUEST FORM

APPLICANT _____

A DEVIATION is a customized return date on the air-portion of your tour.

- Deviation requests must be received in writing no later than 150 days prior to departure. Requests are processed on a first come, first served basis and participants are encouraged to submit requests as early as possible.
- Submitting a deviation request does not guarantee availability. All deviation requests are subject to the governing airline’s rules and regulations regarding group air contracts. An airline may limit or deny a passenger’s request to deviate from the group’s flight itinerary.
- A representative from CETA Tours will contact you regarding the cost and flight schedule for your requested deviation. At that time, you may chose to confirm the deviation or cancel your request.
- All confirmed deviations will be assessed a $200 processing fee per passenger in addition to any airline imposed fees or surcharges.
- Once a deviation has been confirmed, it is non-refundable and non-transferable. Any further request to modify the deviation itinerary will be considered a new request and will result in an additional $200 fee plus any further airline imposed charges. All deviation fees will be added to the participant’s invoice.
- Some deviation requests are not possible within certain group air contracts. In those instances, participants must purchase their own airfare and a Land Only package from CETA Tours.
- CETA Tours is not responsible for providing accommodations, airport transportation or any other tour arrangements for passengers while traveling separately from the group.

A LAND-ONLY package is when a traveler elects to make all of their own air arrangements.

- The traveler is responsible for notifying the group organizer that they will be arranging their own air transportation separate from the tour group and for providing the organizer with an up-to-date copy of their flight schedule.
- CETA Tours is not responsible for providing accommodations, airport transfers or any other tour arrangements for passengers while traveling separately from the group. Additionally, it is the traveler’s responsibility to arrange to meet up with the tour; the tour group will not wait at the airport for travelers arriving separately from the group.
- Once a land-only traveler has secured their own air arrangements, they must submit a confirmed copy of the flight schedule in writing to CETA Tours. Only when CETA has received this information will future invoices reflect the reduced land-only tour cost.
