Bergen ♦ Flåm ♦ Geiranger ♦ Otta ♦ Hamar ♦ Oslo ♦ Copenhagen

Monday, July 13 • Depart USA

We depart on our trans-Atlantic flight to Bergen, Norway.

Tuesday, July 14 • Bergen, Norway

We arrive in Bergen, gateway to the fjords. Situated on a peninsula encircled by mountains, it is considered by many to be the most beautiful city in Norway. After checking into our hotel, we take the funicular up to Mount Fløyen for a magnificent panoramic view of Bergen and the nearby islands. Time permitting, we explore the surrounding area before dinner. D

Wednesday, July 15 • Bergen

This morning, a local guide joins us on a walking tour of the major attractions of Bergen, including Market Square with its 700-year-old Fish Market, Bergenhus Fortress, St. Mary's Church, Bergen Cathedral and the Bryggen, a medieval city district. In the late morning, we tour Trolldhaugen, the home of beloved Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg. The rest of the day is free for other sightseeing at our leisure. B/D

Thursday, July 16 • Flåm, Norway

We depart Bergen and enter the stunning western fjord region of Norway. Our drive on narrow, serpentine roads through the Stalheim region takes us past scenic lakes, forests, fjords and waterfalls. En route we stop for coffee and enjoy some breathtaking views from the terrace of the Stalheim Hotel. Another highlight today is our train ride from Flåm to Myrdal. Our route spirals up and down the steep mountain gorge through tunnels and past rocky cliffs, deep blue fjords and lush green meadows. B/D

Friday, July 17 • Geiranger, Norway

Our route through the picturesque fjord region continues today as we head to the high country around Sogndal and Skei, finally reaching our destination in Hellesylt. We board a ferry for a breathtaking cruise on the Geiranger Fjord. With steep cliffs on both sides, our 10-mile journey follows the fjord, whose waters are 900 feet deep and fed by a series of plunging waterfalls. B/D

Saturday, July 18 • Otta, Norway

Another day of memorable scenery awaits us as, weather permitting, we drive northward on a serpentine mountain road called Trollstigen, or Troll's Ladder. The road connects two small towns and is most famous for its steep incline and hairpin turns. After a break for lunch in Åndalsnes, we head southward and drive along the Gudbrandsdalen, a valley that was the site of some of the heaviest fighting during the invasion of Norway in April 1940. B/D

Sunday, July 19 • Hamar, Norway

This morning, we visit Maihaugen, an open-air museum with dozens of unique structures including a stave church and grass-roofed homes. Our next stop is Lillehammer, site of the 1994 Winter Olympics, where we see the impressive ski jump. This afternoon, we drive to nearby Hamar and tour the Norwegian Emigrant Museum, which chronicles the story of the Norwegian emigration to the United States, primarily to the American Midwest. The open-air museum provides a glimpse of what life was like in a Norwegian pioneering community in the 1880's. B/D

Monday, July 20 • Oslo, Norway

This morning, we continue on to Oslo, home of the Kon-Tiki Museum to see Thor Heyerdahl's ship that he sailed on in 1947 from Peru to Polynesia. Nearby is the Fram Museum which chronicles the polar explorations of the 19th century. We then board a ferry and enjoy some spectacular views of the Oslo harbor and skyline as we travel to Oslo's city center. Here we have time for lunch on our own and other sightseeing. B/D

Tuesday, July 21 • Oslo

After breakfast, we meet our local guide, who shows us the highlights of Norway's capital city, including City Hall, Akershus Fortress, Oslo Cathedral, the Royal Palace and the seafront boardwalk. We also visit Frogner Park where over 200 amazing sculptures by Gustav Vigeland are on display. Our tour ends with a guided tour of the Nobel Peace Center. The remainder of the afternoon is free for visiting the Norwegian Resistance Museum, the National Gallery, shopping or simply relaxing and enjoying the magnificent sights along the waterfront. B

Wednesday, July 22 • Stockholm, Sweden

Today we fly to Stockholm and tour the Vasa Museum that features the only preserved 17th-century ship in the world. The warship Vasa sank on its maiden voyage in the middle of Stockholm harbor in 1628. The ship on display is over 90% original and is decorated with hundreds of carved sculptures. After our visit, we continue on to our hotel where we have some time to relax before dinner. B/D

Thursday, July 23 • Stockholm

After breakfast, we meet our local guide for a panoramic tour of Stockholm, Sweden's capital city that is often called the "Venice of the North" because of its islands and many canals. Our tour includes the impressive Gothic Cathedral, the Royal Palace, the massive City Hall, the Parliament and King's Garden. The afternoon is free to explore the Gamla Stan, Stockholm's Old Town that still has retained its medieval charm, the Stortorget, the original city center, where there are numerous shops, galleries, cafés, bars and restaurants. There is even a museum dedicated to the Swedish group ABBA for Mamma Mia! fans. In the evening, we enjoy a dinner cruise through Stockholm's countless islands. B/D

Friday, July 24 • Copenhagen, Denmark

This morning, we fly to "Wonderful, Wonderful" Copenhagen. Upon arrival, we meet our driver and local guide and enjoy a city tour that passes by Rosenborg Palace, the Round Tower, Christiansborg Palace, Marble Church and the Royal Library. The remainder of the afternoon is free for exploration between the Nyhaven harbor area and along Strøget, a pedestrian street filled with shops and cafés. Before checking into our hotel, we enjoy a one-hour cruise in Copenhagen's harbor. B/D

Saturday, July 25 • Copenhagen

We leave Copenhagen this morning with our local guide and follow the scenic coastal road north to Frederiksborg, a spectacular Renaissance palace with one of the most impressive gardens in northern Europe. After our tour, we enjoy lunch and a photo stop near Helsingør, known as "Castle of Elsinore" in Shakespeare's Hamlet. Later, we return to Copenhagen and have some time to freshen up before enjoying dinner at Tivoli Gardens, a famous park and amusement area that is known for its architecture, rides and lush gardens. B/D

Sunday, July 26 • Return to USA

Regretfully, it's time to transfer to Copenhagen Kastrup Airport for our return flights to the United States. B
